MARCH IS... A HARBINGER OF SPRING!

DAFFODILS

"I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze."

William Wordsworth

"RAGTIME" AT THE UOFM MUSICAL THEATRE

Sunday, April 18, 1pm, $15, Power Center — SIGN UP!!!!

Enjoy the wonderful songs of this great show and the incredible talent of the U of M Musical Theatre Department!! It is 1906 in America, the land of opportunity. Three diverse groups in New York City – a protestant, white, middle-class family, a Jewish immigrant and his daughter, and an African American musician and his girlfriend – are experiencing dizzying changes in American society. Industrial expansion with the burgeoning labor movement, waves of immigration, newfound freedom for blacks, and woman's rights are affecting them in dramatic ways. As their lives unexpectedly intertwine with each other and with historical personalities of the era such as J.P. Morgan, Harry Houdini, Evelyn Nesbit, and Booker T. Washington, some embrace the changes with new hope while others bear the bitter realization that promised opportunities may still be out of their reach. $15 (for a group of 10). Sign up and pay by April 1. Please pay with a check made out to Silver Maples. Thank you!
